City Accepting Applications for One Vacancy

SOMERVILLE – The City of Somerville is seeking one new member to join the Mayor’s Appointments Advisory Committee (AAC). If you care about fairness, transparency, and community voice in local government, this is a great opportunity to make a meaningful impact.

The AAC plays a key role in strengthening how Somerville selects members for its regulatory and decision-making boards and commissions. By helping review applicants and recommend finalists, AAC members ensure that appointments reflect the needs, values, and diversity of our community.

What Is the AAC?
The Mayor’s Appointments Advisory Committee is a five-person, volunteer body that makes nonpartisan, informed recommendations for appointments to 14 City boards and commissions.

The full list of boards and commissions is available online: somervillema.gov/departments/appointments-advisory-committee

AAC members review applications, interview finalists, and recommend two candidates for each vacancy to the Mayor, who then advances one nominee to the City Council for confirmation.

Who Can Join?
Ideal candidates are:
Interested in learning about local government
Thoughtful, fair, and community-driven
Interested in people and process
Motivated to contribute to transparent, equitable decision-making

Individuals with backgrounds in law, recruitment, human resources, or human services are strongly encouraged to apply, but these experiences are not required.

This is a volunteer position.

What Is the Time Commitment?
The AAC meets only when there are openings on the boards or commissions under its purview.
When active vacancies exist, the AAC typically meets bi-weekly on Wednesdays from 7–9 p.m. Meetings are held virtually. Additional time may be needed for reviewing applications and interview materials.

What Is the Appointment Process?

Members are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council.

Somerville/Medford Remembering Eleanor M Price

Obituary On Monday, December 8, 2025, Eleanor died in her home in Somerville, surrounded by her family. Eleanor was born on April 30,1927 in Dublin, Ireland. The eldest of four girls, Eleanor defied norms of the day by graduating from University College Dublin with a degree in architecture. She first worked in London, which was recovering from the war and offered few opportunities. Eventually, she landed in Zimbabwe, Rhodesia at the time, where one of her cousin’s lived, and found a position at a local firm.	A few years later, a family friend living in San Francisco encouraged her to move to CA. There she lived with an expat group of English and Irish professionals and met a lifelong American friend Barbara. When her Irish cousin Roddy, also an architect, offered her his rent-controlled apartment (around the corner from the Guggenheim) she took the chance and flew to New York. There she met Donald Price, a lawyer from Minnesota. In 1966, she and Don married. They settled in Montclair, NJ, where they raised their children, John and Margaret. While living in	Montclair, Eleanor did a master’s in architectural preservation at Columbia and led eNorts to preserve and document Montclair’s historical buildings. When they retired, they moved to Wilmington, NC. There, Eleanor worked for the historic foundation and loved spending time with Don in the garden. After Don died, Eleanor moved to Cambridge to be close to her daughter Margaret, son-in-law Cador and grandchildren, Esmay and Powell. She rented in Cambridge until 2019 when she moved into Margaret and Cador’s two-family home. While in Mas-	sachusetts, Eleanor joined Harvard Learning in Retirement where she thrived in the intellectual and social community there. Up until this summer, Eleanor was going for walks around the neighborhood, shopping at the corner store and taking Ubers to appointments. She published her memoir “An Ocean Divides Me” this spring. People were generally astonished to hear her age. She was a marvel. Eleanor leaves her son John Price and daughter-in-law Silvana Silveira of Los Angeles,	her daughter Margaret Pricejones and son-in-law Cador Pricejones of Somerville , her grandchildren Powell Pricejones and Esmay Pricejones, her sister Esmay Rothschild and brother-in-law Michael Rothschild of Dublin, Ireland, and sister Ann Twiss of Portlaoise, Ireland. A funeral mass will be held on Friday, December 19th at Saint Cecilia’s Church, 18 Belvidere Street, Boston at 10:30AM. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

REPARATIVE JUSTICE FOR DESCENDANTS OF SLAVES (H 1696 and H 1753)

By Bob Katzen

The Judiciary Committee held a hearing on a measure (H 1696) that would establish a 15-member commission to study and develop proposals for reparative justice and other potential remedies to redress harm resulting from the institution of slavery and systemic racism in the Bay State. The commission would produce a report documenting the effects of slavery and its legacy on the American Freedman class – which it defines as “descendants of formerly enslaved persons emancipated in the United States via the 13th Amendment in 1865 or earlier.”

“Rep Fluker-Reid filed the bill to address the long-standing social, political and economic disenfranchisement faced by American Freedmen,” said Camille Mula, a spokesperson for Fluker-Reid. “American Freedmen in Massachusetts on average face dramatically higher rates of incarceration, extreme poverty, maternal mortality and other health disparities ... compared to other racial groups as well as other Black people who fall outside of the category of Freedmen.”

A similar bill (H 1753) that would also establish a special commission to study reparation, was also on the committee’s agenda. Its sponsor, Rep. Russell Holmes (D-Boston), did not respond to repeated requests by Beacon Hill Roll Call asking him why he filed his version of the bill.

Letter from the Editor: Patsy’s Pastry Building Being Developed
After Years of Somerville Bureaucracy Tactics

Your thoughts?

After almost 10 years of local politics holding back development and bureaucracy it’s official! Patsy’s Pastry, the long abandoned building on Broadway, will be purchased again after the last owners were screwed by the city and now it will be converted into 100 percent affordable housing!

Any Somerville elected official that is all of a sudden pounding thier chests out there (and there is one city councilman already pounded his chest on his Facebook page) regarding this should be ashamed of themselves because while they were in office this strong-arming and decade long stalling took place and even more disturbing it was allowed ! Shame on the city counselor who could’ve put a stop to it and ended the criminal actions long ago but he chose not to!

At one point as city counselor he did say and I quote he called it “Systemic corruption here in Somerville” but he still chose not to do a thing about it!

Kiwanis Club of Somerville Annual Marine Corps, Toys for Tots luncheon and Toy Donations to CAAS Head Start Children

SOMERVILLE_ On Thursday, December 11th, Somerville Kiwanis Club members were joined by our good friends from the Somerville Rotary Club and Somerville Lions Club for our annual Toys For Tots luncheon meeting at the Burren Restaurant in Davis Square.

Two members of the Marine Corps joined us for this special tri-club meeting. Everyone attending brought unwrapped toys for donating to the United States Marine Corps, Toys For Tots program. In addition to more than two hundred fifty new, unwrapped toys, the Marines were presented with a donation to Toys for Tots of $2500.00 from Middlesex Federal Savings Bank which was presented by Vice President Adam Portney who is also s Somerville Kiwanis member. The Toys for Tots drive is in addition to more than 200 toys that were delivered to the Community Action Agency of Somerville (CAAS) Head Start program for children of low income families.

Our meeting began with as always with the pledge of allegiance and opening prayer, followed by a wonderful lunch and a brief thank you message from Gunnery Sergeant Miguel Guzman.

We also held our first Lucky K drawing of this administrative year, which raises funds for our annual scholarship program. Program Chair Past President Charlie Ball thanked everyone for their support of the Lucky K program, especially Past President and Distinguished Secretary Emeritus Bob Nissenbaum, who every year sells more than 150 tickets in support of this program.

At the end of the meeting, the members loaded the Marine's van with all of the donated toys which will make Christmas a little happier for children in need in our area. President Tom Austin and Co-President Dawn Austin thanked the Kiwanis members and our Lions and Rotary Club friends for their support and special thanks to today's Marine guests, Sergeant Ulises Tapia and Gunnery Sergeant Miguel Guzman, who are both active-duty Marines. Also, very special thanks to Program Chairman Distinguished Past President Jay Lynch for another successful toy drive. DPP Jay has coordinated the Toys for Tots effort since 1993.

The Kiwanis Club of Somerville is celebrating it's 100th year of community service. From the very beginning, service to underprivileged children and children in need of assistance became a core mission of the Kiwanis Club of Somerville. The first Christmas of the club's existence was marked by a special party and toys for these children in need. The tradition of providing for children at the Christmas holiday season continues to be carried on annually to this day with the club assisting the children served by the Toys for Tots and Head Start programs.

Pictured: Program Chairman James Lynch, Marine Corps members Sergeant Ulises Tapia and Gunnery Sergeant Miguel Guzman and Kiwanis member Adam Portney.

AGENT ORANGE (H 4688 and H 4691)

By Bob Katzen

The Committee on Transportation held a hearing on legislation that would create a special Agent Orange license plate that would be made available, at no cost, to car owners who served in Vietnam and have suffered from exposure to Agent Orange. The plate would bear the Orange Star distinctive emblem that identifies Vietnam veterans exposed to the agent.

Meanwhile, the Committee on State Administration and Regulatory Oversight held a hearing on legislation that would establish August 10th as Agent Orange Awareness Day.

Both bills were co-sponsored by Reps. Jim Hawkins (D-Attleboro) and Kelly Pease (R-Westfield).

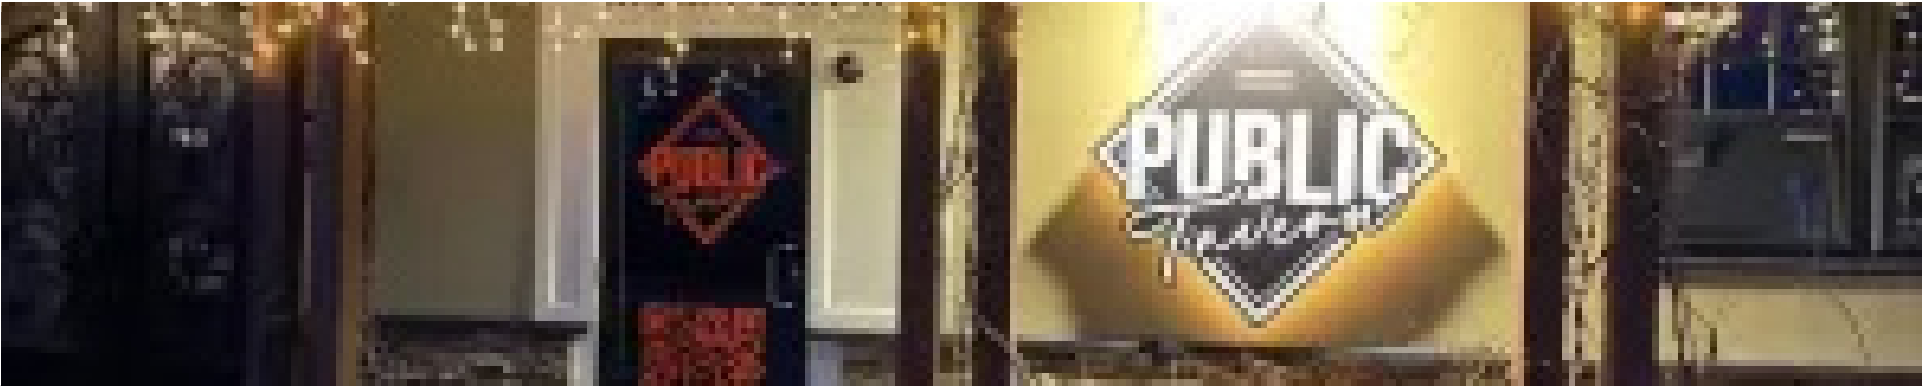

Supporters said that Agent Orange was widely used in Vietnam by the United States Armed Forces as part of the herbicidal warfare program, Operation Ranch Hand, from 1961 until 1971. They noted that nearly 20 million gallons of the orange powder were sprayed over the land from helicopters or low-flying aircraft, destroying vegetation and crops to deprive enemy guerrillas of food and cover for their activities. Supporters noted that at the same time, this exposed 2.6 million American soldiers to the herbicide and defoliant chemical, which causes a number of serious illnesses, including leukemia, lymphoma, myeloma, ischemic heart disease, soft tissue sarcoma, amyloidosis, diabetes and cancers of the throat, prostate, lung and colon.

Pease said he co-sponsored these two bills to recognize the lasting sacrifices made by Vietnam War veterans and their families. “These bills ensure continued awareness of the health impacts of Agent Orange exposure while paying tribute to the courage and service of those who endured it. It’s important that Massachusetts never forgets the cost of their service and continues to support those still living with its consequences.”

“We filed [those bills] since there are still so many Vietnam veterans around who are still suffering from the severe health consequences of exposure to Agent Orange and to honor their service and sacrifice,” said Hawkins.

Somerville Residents Invited to Be “Loyal to Local” Businesses This Season

City sharing tips and tools to help community support local businesses all winter long

SOMERVILLE – One-of-a-kind gifts, tasty foods, great entertainment, artist markets, and fun events await this holiday season (and winter!) in Somerville, and Mayor Katjana Ballantyne wants to be sure the community seizes these opportunities to support Somerville’s local businesses all winter long by shopping, dining, and going out local as part of the City’s “Loyal to Local” initiative.

“Across the country, communities are gearing up to celebrate Small Business Saturday this week. In Somerville, we know the goal is not just to shop locally one day a year, but all 365 days of the year,” said Mayor Ballantyne. “If you’re heading out anyway, let’s keep it local and shop, dine, go out, and seek services from the local and small businesses that help keep our city vibrant and a great place to live.”

Loyal to Local Website and Calendar

Opportunities to stay loyal to local businesses abound in Somerville. This winter, residents looking to discover new places to shop, dine, catch a show, or seek a service can visit somerwilllema.gov/loyal2local for updates and events (a few are up now, more to come!).

In December, the City will also publish a “Ways to Stay Loyal to Local” calendar, available online and at community locations throughout the season. The resources will share how residents can help Somerville’s businesses and keep their dollars in the community, whether by exploring neighborhood shops, attending local holiday markets, dining at independent restaurants, seeking local services, or sharing favorite businesses with friends and neighbors.

Upcoming Events

There are great local business events to kick off the holiday shopping season in Somerville. This is just a sampling. More to come on the Loyal 2 Local Calendar including local artist markets too.

Small Business Saturday at Bow, Saturday, 11/29: Head to Bow Market from 11a.m.- 6 p.m. you’ll find retail, food & drink specials, the annual maker market & “shop small win big” prize challenges. More at <http://www.bowmarketsomerville.com> Davis Square Holidate, Saturday 12/6: Shop, dine, and chill out all day and eve amid holiday lights and enjoy holiday specials, sales, giveaways, a raffle, and more throughout the Square as Davis Square merchants host the first ever Davis Square Holidate. Eat Out in East, every Wednesday: Each Wednesday, 4-8 p.m. (or really anytime) East Somerville Main Streets invites folks to Eat Out on East (East Broadway that is). Gift cards to local eateries and bakeries can make great holiday gifts too. More at eastsomervillmainstreets.org/eatoutineast.

Union Square Jingle, Sunday 12/7: Head to Union Square from 1 to 6 p.m., shop, sip, follow the Festivus Trail, enjoy window displays and holiday lights, pose with crazy inflatables, vie for prizes, take Ellie Selfies, and more. More at unionsquare-main.org/events

“Somerville’s small businesses are the heart of our neighborhoods,” said Mayor Katjana Ballantyne. “When you shop small, you’re investing in community jobs, supporting local families, and strengthening the places that make Somerville feel like home.”

The Loyal to Local campaign, led by the City’s Economic Development and Communications teams aims to uplift the small businesses that fuel Somerville’s economy, preserve its unique character, and keep its commercial districts vibrant year-round.

Somerville/Medford News Weekly Speakup Line: Unpopular Opinion: The Somerville Homeless Coalition is ineffective. We are spending millions to watch the crisis get worse.

Dear Billy T and Somerville/Medford News Weekly Speakup Line,

I know this sub loves to defend the SHC, but can we look at the actual results for a second?

I checked their nonprofit filings on ProPublica and they’re pulling in over $8.4 million in revenue now. That is a massive jump from a few years ago. But if you walk through Davis Square today versus 2020, does it look like we’re getting an $8 million return on investment?

The actual data is bad. Boston Indicators showed homelessness in the area is up like 67% year over year. Meanwhile, the SHC has been running things for 40 years and their own impact reports just brag about “bags of groceries distributed” or “engagement visits.” Those are maintenance stats, not solutions.

We’re basically funding a containment strategy that keeps people on the street comfortably enough to stay there.

If a company burned this much cash with these results, they’d be dissolved. We need to stop blindly donating and ask where the money is actually going, because it’s clearly not fixing the problem.

SAFETY OF CANDIDATES (S 2742)

By Bob Katzen

The Election Laws Committee held a hearing on legislation designed to enhance the safety and security of candidates for public office by removing home addresses from ballots, nomination papers and other materials.

The measure also would protect from disclosure of personal contact information maintained by government entities on elected officials, judges, judicial officers, law enforcement personnel, public prosecutors, public defenders and state licensed professionals whose work subjects them to an elevated safety risk.

Supporters said that Massachusetts is the only state in the nation that unnecessarily puts people at risk by requiring candidates to put their street addresses on nomination papers and ballots.

“Amid harassment, intimidation, assault and cold-blooded murder of elected officials and their families, as well as health care professionals, law enforcement officers and others, we must do everything we possibly can to protect our existing public servants and make it safe for anyone to run for and serve in office,” said sponsor Sen. Becca Rausch (D-Needham). “Notably, this is not a partisan issue, as figures spanning the political spectrum have faced terrible violence.”

ALLOW MBTA RIDERS TO PAY ONSITE FOR PARKING WITHOUT A MOBILE PHONE (H 3664)

The House gave initial approval to a proposal that would establish an 18-month pilot program requiring that three MBTA parking lots install automated payment machines that allow customers to make in-person payment for daily parking fees by cash or credit card, without the use of a mobile telephone or any other portable electronic device. The MBTA would file a report on the efficacy of the program.

The proposal was given initial approval by the House in 2020 but died when the House let it sit in a committee for ten months.

Supporters say that people who don't use a mobile phone or other portable electronic device are billed for parking at MBTA lots through the mail at a higher rate than riders who use the app. They argue this is unfair to those without the means to purchase a mobile phone or who have trouble using their phone.

Rep. Bill Galvin (D-Canton), the sponsor of the legislation, did not respond to repeated requests by Beacon Hill Roll Call asking him why he filed the bill and if he expects the bill to receive additional approval in the House and then approval in the Senate.

Opponents of the bill say the measure is unnecessary because drivers can already currently pay the fee with a landline phone at the same rate that mobile phone users pay.

Somerville/Medford Remembering Christine E. (Fleming) Martino

Boston State College.

Prior to retiring, Mrs. Martino taught junior and high school math for Dracut Public Schools and also served as a former National Level Gymnastics Judge for both high school and USA levels. She treasured the times spent with her adoring family and also enjoyed reading and baking.

She was the devoted mother of Stephanie Schwartz and her husband Brian of Mansfield, with whom she made her home and Matthew T. Martino of Somerville. She was the cherished grandmother of Aden Schwartz of Mansfield and Trevor Schwartz of Mansfield. She was the dear sister of Robert Fleming and his wife Arlene of Weymouth and Joseph Fleming of Maine. She is also survived by her many loving nieces and nephews.

SCHOOLS MUST PROVIDE TYPE 1 DIABETES INFORMATION TO PARENTS (H 586)

By Bob Katzen

The Public Health Committee held a hearing on a bill that would require the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE), in coordination with the Department of Public Health, to develop Type 1 diabetes informational materials for the parents and guardians of public school pupils when the student is first enrolled in elementary school and again upon his or her entry into 6th grade.

The materials would be required to undergo periodic updates as necessary and be made available to each school district, county office of education and charter school through the DESE's website. Schools would be required to provide the information to parents and guardians by January 1, 2026.

The materials would be required to include a description of Type 1 diabetes; a description of the risk factors and warning signs associated with Type 1 diabetes; a recommendation regarding those students displaying warning signs associated with Type 1 diabetes that the parents or guardians of those students should immediately consult with the student's primary care provider to determine if immediate screening for Type 1 diabetes is appropriate; and a recommendation that, following a Type 1 diagnosis, parents or guardians should consult with the student's primary care provider to develop an appropriate treatment plan, which may include consultation with and examination by a specialty care provider, including a properly qualified endocrinologist.

Supporters say that the bill would help identify students with Type 1 diabetes earlier and begin early and appropriate treatment for this disease that affects so many children.

Rep. Jessica Giannino (D-Revere), the sponsor of the legislation, did not respond to repeated requests by Beacon Hill Roll Call asking her why she filed the bill and why she thinks it is important for the Legislature to approve the measure.
