City Accepting Applications for One Vacancy

SOMERVILLE – The City of Somerville is seeking one new member to join the Mayor’s Appointments Advisory Committee (AAC). If you care about fairness, transparency, and community voice in local government, this is a great opportunity to make a meaningful impact.

The AAC plays a key role in strengthening how Somerville selects members for its regulatory and decision-making boards and commissions. By helping review applicants and recommend finalists, AAC members ensure that appointments reflect the needs, values, and diversity of our community.

What Is the AAC?

The Mayor’s Appointments Advisory Committee is a five-person, volunteer body that makes nonpartisan, informed recommendations for appointments to 14 City boards and commissions.

The full list of boards and commissions is available online: [somer villema.gov/departments/appointments-advisory-committee](http://somer villema.gov/departments/appointments-advisory-committee)

AAC members review applications, interview finalists, and recommend two candidates for each vacancy to the Mayor, who then advances one nominee to the City Council for confirmation.

Who Can Join?

Ideal candidates are:

Interested in learning about local government

Thoughtful, fair, and community-driven

Interested in people and process

Motivated to contribute to transparent, equitable decision-making

Individuals with backgrounds in law, recruitment, human resources, or human services are strongly encouraged to apply, but these experiences are not required.

This is a volunteer position.

What Is the Time Commitment?

The AAC meets only when there are openings on the boards or commissions under its purview.

When active vacancies exist, the AAC typically meets bi-weekly on Wednesdays from 7–9 p.m. Meetings are held virtually. Additional time may be needed for reviewing applications and interview materials.

What Is the Appointment Process?

Members are appointed by the Mayor and confirmed by the City Council.

How Do I Apply?

Applications will be considered until the position is filled. To apply please provide a:

Resume

Statement of Interest or Cover Letter

Somerville/Medford Remembering Rose T. Nguyen

Obituary
Rose T. Nguyen, 62, passed away on December 16, 2025 in Boston Massachusetts. Born in Saigon, Vietnam on September 18 1963, Rose came to America when she was 20. Residing in Somerville Massachusetts for most of her life, she alone worked tirelessly to provide a good life to her 3 daughters.

Rose spent her life enthralled with beauty and fashion. She worked in many salons as a beautician and esthetician, eventually opening her own successful salons. Outside of work you could find Rose in her garden passionately caring for the hydrangeas that her mother planted, or ballroom dancing and singing karaoke with her friends. She was also a longtime member of the Saint Joseph Parish in Somerville, where she worshipped every Sunday.

Rose was the loving partner of Vinh. Caring mother of Angel and her fiancé Stephen, Alison, and Shayla. Daughter of Thuong, niece of Tammy. Beloved sister of Thuha, and her children, Yamasee and Tony, as well as Tony’s son, Alfredo; and brother Donald, and his wife, Hien, along with their children, Casey, Dominic, Dana, and Dean. Loving grandmother of Avah, Anela, Aria, Stevie Jr., and Lunar.

Followed by a funeral mass celebrated in St. Joseph Church, 262 Washington St., Somerville at 10:00AM.

Relatives and friends are invited.

Calling Hours will be held on Friday from 4:00PM to 7:00PM.

Services will conclude with burial at Cedar Grove Cemetery, 920 Adams St. Dorchester.

Her beautiful soul will be so severely missed.

Saying goodbye to another local Somerville business!

By William Tauro
Big Fish Little Fish are closing permanently. It will be so strange to not see it there anymore after decades of being there.

Letter from the Editor: the future of the Patsy’s Pastry Building

Since the city bought the property where Patsy’s Pastry once occupied many are wondering how much did the city of Somerville pay for it and we hope they don’t get them in a mess like Washington Street Cobble Hill nightmare where the city lost millions?

Future Of Long-vacant Somerville Bakery Decided

SOMERVILLE, MA — An old, long-vacant pastry shop is set to be put to better use.

Patsy’s Pastry Shop at 182 Broadway will be purchased by the city for the purpose of converting it to 100 percent affordable housing units, according to Ward One City Councilor and State Senate Candidate Matt McLaughlin.

“There are hundreds of vacant lots across the Commonwealth that should be used to build affordable housing. Somerville is leading the way with Patsy’s and Star Market,” McLaughlin said in a statement. “If we can build affordable housing in the most densely populated city in the state, others can do the same.”

Patsy’s was a Somerville staple for nearly 50 years until it closed its doors in May 2015. Founder Patsy Ferrigno opened the location after having success with a Boston food truck.

McLaughlin said the area is now zoned for approximately five stories of housing. He credited the Somerville Community Corporation as a driving force behind the acquisition and project.

When is enough enough? January 20th can't come soon enough when we will have common sense restored back into the White House.

Kamala Harris Faced Backlash as an old video clip of hers that resurfaced promoting 'Wokeness'.

According to the Republic News Source "The resurfaced video from 2017 shows Kamala Harris urging Americans to "stay woke," igniting a wave of criticism on social media. Conservative author James Lindsay and others have labeled her a "Communist functionary," leading to intense backlash. The video has sparked public debate over the controversial topics discussed during the conference, including immigration and drug policies, raising questions about Harris's stance on these issues in light of her current role as Vice President."

See video clip: Harris says

'everybody needs to be woke' in unearthed clip spreading like wildfire on social media <https://search.app/cy7R9nKo-QCp4D3Bg8>

Our elected officials here in Somerville are a total disgrace as well! Just look at the dancing woke Somerville City Councilwoman in this video! She should concentrate more on our homeless, our veterans, our seniors, fixing our streets and schools and giving our police and firefighters the tools they need to keep us safe instead of spending time on our dime acting like the total clown that she is acting like in my opinion!!

US HOUSE PASSES BILL TO BAN TRANSGENDER SURGERIES FOR CHILDREN

US HOUSE PASSES BILL TO BAN TRANSGENDER SURGERIES FOR CHILDREN

The U.S. House of Representatives has taken a crucial step to protect children by passing a bill that makes “bodily mutilation of a minor” a federal crime. Sponsored by Marjorie Taylor Greene, the 216-211 vote shows lawmakers are finally prioritizing the safety and well-being of kids nationwide.

While some states already act, this legislation ensures no child is subjected to irreversible gender-altering treatments anywhere in the country.

THIS WEEK’S QUOTABLE QUOTES ON BEACON HILL

By Bob Katzen

“This funding marks a major milestone for communities around our commonwealth that have waited far too long for meaningful investment. When I proposed the Environmental Justice Fund ... I did so with the conviction that every neighborhood deserves clean air, safe water and a healthy environment. These funds, which we procured by holding polluters accountable, will help repair historic harms and ensure that these resources flow directly to the communities most in need of our support.”

— Attorney General Andrea Campbell announcing the awarding of $475,000 in grants to support community-based projects that address environmental harms in disadvantaged communities.

“President Trump’s executive order preempting state-level AI regulation is nothing less than a giveaway to the trillion-dollar Big Tech companies and ultra-wealthy CEOs that funded his campaign. One of the most basic functions of government is the power to protect its people. By taking away our power to place reasonable guardrails around the development and use of artificial intelligence, the president is neutering our ability to defend Bay Staters against the worst drawbacks of this technology, including AI-generated deepfakes, predatory algorithms, dangerous misinformation campaigns and more.”

— Sen. Mike Moore (D-Millbury) urging the Bay State Congressional delegation to fight President Trump’s recently-signed executive order on artificial intelligence, which directs U.S. Attorney General Pam Bondi to establish an AI Litigation Task Force whose sole purpose will be to challenge state-level AI regulations in court.

“From our smallest hill towns to our Gateway Cities and regional hubs, we are listening to local leaders and making sure they have the resources they need to deliver for their residents. These Community Development Block Grants will support housing and economic development in cities and towns across the state, and the new Rural and Small Town designation will make sure that no community is left behind.”

— Gov. Maura Healey, announcing nearly $33.5 million in federal Community Development Block Grant awards to support housing, infrastructure, social services and economic development projects in 52 communities across Massachusetts.

“These grants put real resources behind our commitment to protecting Massachusetts’ farmland. We are proud to support Massachusetts farming heritage and legacy to ensure our farmlands are there for generations to come.”

— Energy and Environmental Affairs Secretary Rebecca Tepper announcing over $1.8 million in funding to help protect farmland, support farm businesses and keep agricultural land in active use across Massachusetts through the newly created Massachusetts Farmland Partnership Program.

Somerville Grinch Steals Bicycle

 Somerville, MA Community · Join 13m ·

Hi friends, sadly my bicycle was stolen last night. Here’s a picture of it.

It notably has pink handlebar grips, grey body, and is single-gear.

It was parked last night behind a house near the intersection of Lowell St and Highland Ave.

It did have a U-lock on it, fastened between the top and down tubes.

I figure it’s a longshot posting, but any help/info on its whereabouts would be greatly appreciated.

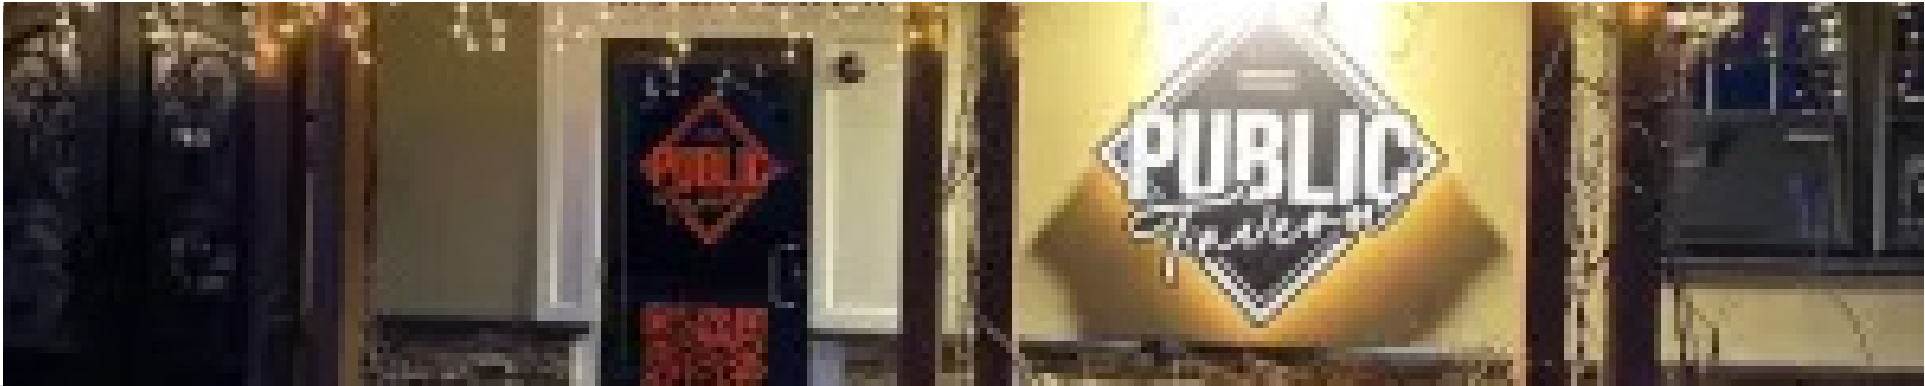

It’s not worth a lot, but it’s worth a lot to me!

Thank you all in advance

Sadly there’s still a grinch out there somewhere in the world especially here in Somerville! Let’s help this individual get their bike back for Christmas!

Somerville Residents Invited to Be “Loyal to Local” Businesses This Season

City sharing tips and tools to help community support local businesses all winter long

SOMERVILLE – One-of-a-kind gifts, tasty foods, great entertainment, artist markets, and fun events await this holiday season (and winter!) in Somerville, and Mayor Katjana Ballantyne wants to be sure the community seizes these opportunities to support Somerville’s local businesses all winter long by shopping, dining, and going out local as part of the City’s “Loyal to Local” initiative.

“Across the country, communities are gearing up to celebrate Small Business Saturday this week. In Somerville, we know the goal is not just to shop locally one day a year, but all 365 days of the year,” said Mayor Ballantyne. “If you’re heading out anyway, let’s keep it local and shop, dine, go out, and seek services from the local and small businesses that help keep our city vibrant and a great place to live.”

Loyal to Local Website and Calendar

Opportunities to stay loyal to local businesses abound in Somerville. This winter, residents looking to discover new places to shop, dine, catch a show, or seek a service can visit somervillema.gov/loyal2local for updates and events (a few are up now, more to come!).

In December, the City will also publish a “Ways to Stay Loyal to Local” calendar, available online and at community locations throughout the season. The resources will share how residents can help Somerville’s businesses and keep their dollars in the community, whether by exploring neighborhood shops, attending local holiday markets, dining at independent restaurants, seeking local services, or sharing favorite businesses with friends and neighbors.

Upcoming Events

There are great local business events to kick off the holiday shopping season in Somerville. This is just a sampling. More to come on the Loyal 2 Local Calendar including local artist markets too.

Small Business Saturday at Bow, Saturday, 11/29: Head to Bow Market from 11a.m.- 6 p.m. you’ll find retail, food & drink specials, the annual maker market & “shop small win big” prize challenges. More at <http://www.bowmarketsomerville.com> Davis Square Holiday, Saturday 12/6: Shop, dine, and chill out all day and eve amid holiday lights and enjoy holiday specials, sales, giveaways, a raffle, and more throughout the Square as Davis Square merchants host the first ever Davis Square Holiday. Eat Out in East, every Wednesday: Each Wednesday, 4-8 p.m. (or really anytime) East Somerville Main Streets invites folks to Eat Out on East (East Broadway that is). Gift cards to local eateries and bakeries can make great holiday gifts too. More at eastsomervillemainstreets.org/eatoutineast. Union Square Jingle, Sunday 12/7: Head to Union Square from 1 to 6 p.m., shop, sip, follow the Festus Trail, enjoy window displays and holiday lights, pose with crazy inflatables, vie for prizes, take Ellie Selfies, and more. More at unionsquare-main.org/events

“Somerville’s small businesses are the heart of our neighborhoods,” said Mayor Katjana Ballantyne. “When you shop small, you’re investing in community jobs, supporting local families, and strengthening the places that make Somerville feel like home.”

The Loyal to Local campaign, led by the City’s Economic Development and Communications teams aims to uplift the small businesses that fuel Somerville’s economy, preserve its unique character, and keep its commercial districts vibrant year-round.

PROHIBIT DISCRIMINATION BASED ON HEIGHT AND WEIGHT (H 1919)

By Bob Katzen

The Judiciary Committee held a hearing on a proposal that would add height and weight to Massachusetts’ existing anti-discrimination laws, by prohibiting discrimination, based on height and weight, in employment, education, housing and places of public accommodation.

The measure would require the Attorney General’s Office to investigate complaints unless the action in question is based on the purpose of compliance with any established state, federal or industry safety standards. It would also prohibit places of public accommodation, resort or amusement from issuing or circulating any policies or communications that signal discriminatory treatment based on body size, aligning this protection with how Massachusetts approaches other forms of discrimination.

“No one should lose out on a job, education or basic dignity because of their height or weight,” said sponsor Rep. Tram Nguyen (D-Andover). “Particularly, we know that the effects of weight-based discrimination do not fall evenly. Communities facing intersecting barriers, such as limited access to affordable, nutritious foods or other systemic inequities, are often hit hardest. This legislation expands nondiscrimination protection to ensure that every person in Massachusetts is treated with fairness, dignity and respect.”

SAFEGUARD SHORT TERM RENTALS (S 2736)

By Bob Katzen

The Public Safety and Homeland Security Committee held a hearing on a bill, known as the “Maggie Hubbard Rental Safety Act, that would require that all short-term rentals in Massachusetts be inspected for working smoke and carbon monoxide detectors within one year prior to rental. It also mandates that rental platforms and agents verify this certification before listing a property, ensuring consistent, statewide fire safety protections for renters.

“Shannon Hubbard and her one-year-old daughter Maggie were tragically killed in a short-term rental that lacked working smoke and carbon monoxide detector,” said sponsor Sen. Julian Cyr (D-Truro). “It was an entirely preventable and unacceptable loss ... By requiring annual safety inspections and ensuring that rental platforms verify compliance before listing a unit, the bill puts in place the basic, common-sense protections every renter deserves and strengthens public safety in communities across Massachusetts.”

Rep. Hadley Luddy (D-Orleans), a co-sponsor of the proposal, did not respond to repeated requests by Beacon Hill Roll Call, asking her why she co-sponsored the bill.

ADOPT A SHELTER DOG MONTH (H 3288)

By Bob Katzen

The House gave initial approval to legislation that would designate the month of October as Adopt a Shelter Dog Month.

“Massachusetts shelters take in more than 20,000 animals each year, and despite our high save rate, they continue to struggle with staffing shortages, rising intakes and limited community resources,” said sponsor Rep. Bruce

Ayers (D-Quincy). “Establishing October as ‘Adopt a Shelter Dog Month’ will give us a statewide platform to promote adoption, support our shelters and ensure more dogs have a real chance at finding a permanent home.”

REGIONAL SCHOOL DISTRICTS (H 836)

By Bob Katzen

The House gave initial approval to a measure that would establish uniform polling hours of 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. for elections in which regional school districts ask voters to incur debt.

Supporters said that under current law, regional school district committees have discretion to set polling hours anywhere between four and eight consecutive hours, which can result in reduced voter access compared to standard municipal and state elections.

They noted that this inconsistency was evident during a recent special election for the Northeast Metropolitan Regional Vocational Technical School’s $317 million new building project where polls were open only from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.—providing just seven hours of voting time compared to the standard 13-hour window used in most municipal and state elections.

“This bill simply makes voting easier and fairer by setting uniform polling hours ... when regional school districts ask voters to incur debt for major projects, such as renovations or new buildings, ensuring every voter has the same opportunity to participate, no matter where they live,” said sponsor Rep. Richard

Haggerty (D-Woburn). “This extended 13-hour polling window is designed to accommodate voters with diverse work schedules, family obligations and other commitments, ensuring all residents have a fair and equal opportunity to participate in decisions affecting their regional schools.”

KEEP DARK MONEY OUT OF TOWN MEETING (H 806)

By Bob Katzen

The House gave initial approval to a bill that would apply the state’s campaign finance election laws to political expenditures of more than $1,000, made by persons, corporations, associations, organizations or other groups of people, to influence the outcome of articles that appear on Town Meeting warrants. The person or group would be required to file disclosure forms and failure to comply would be punishable by a 1-year prison sentence and/or a $1,000 fine.

Supporters said that the bill will close a loophole that allows unlimited amounts of unreported funds by outside individuals and groups to influence and sway the town’s decision. They noted the flow of dark drowns out the vote of the local voters.

The four co-sponsors of the legislation, Reps. Simon Cataldo (D-Concord), Tom Moakley (D-Falmouth) and Sens. Dylan Fernandes (D-Falmouth) and Julian Cyr (D-Truro), submitted joint testimony in a letter to the Election Laws Committee which heard testimony on the measure in October.

The letter said, “Our proposal is consistent with existing Massachusetts campaign finance law, which requires full disclosure of contributions and expenditures for candidates, political committees and ballot question campaigns. By extending disclosure requirements to individuals and entities aiming to influence town warrant articles, this bill would bring local governance practices in line with these established democratic norms for state-level elections, closing a loophole in Massachusetts election laws.”

The letter continued, “There is motivation for entities to use the existing loophole. Major policy decisions are made at a town meeting level. Many warrant articles concern areas where corporate and special interest groups have a direct financial stake, such as zoning laws, housing developments, telecommunication rules and environmental regulations. Without mandated transparency, these groups can present their well-funded campaigns as grassroots efforts.”
